

Service Unit Community Champion Award Description

The Community Champion Award recognizes a group in the community for their support of Girl Scouts at the Service Unit level. The award is given in the form of a certificate.

Criteria

- The group has made a significant contribution to the success of Girl Scouting in a specific service unit.

Process

- Nominations for the Community Champion Award are accepted by any volunteer in the service unit and approved by the Recognition Chair and Service Unit Manager.
- The nomination process and volunteer recognition plan are determined by the service unit and do not need council approval.
- The certificate is located on the GSKSMO website: <https://www.gsksmo.org/en/get-involved/CurrentGirlScout/for-volunteers/volunteer-essentials/VolunteerRecognition.html>
