

Young Voters Committee

Taylor has been a Girl Scout for 11 years and is in Troop 506 in Service Unit 661. She is currently a junior at Lansing High School.

Taylor was concerned with the lack of political knowledge and voter registration among her peers, specifically when matters directly impacted them on the local level. Taylor created an environment where her classmates at Lansing High School could learn about issues on ballots and hear from elected officials directly.

Taylor worked with her State Representative, Debbie Deere and AP History Teacher Melissa LaGree to create and hold the workshops. The Young Voters Committee is now a club at Lansing High School and will continue to meet monthly, staying up to date on issues that are affecting their community.

Because of Girl Scouts... I was able to find myself as a leader not only in my troop or school, but in my community.
