

More Fun: Civic Engagement in November

For all Girl Scout Grade Levels

Enjoying your Civic Engagement experiences? Check out these local community partners and civic engagement resources to take the fun farther.

Patch Program:

- Complete the GSKSMO 2020 Census Patch available for all program levels <https://www.gsksmo.org/content/dam/girlscouts-gsksmo/OtherDocuments/at-home/All-Census-Patch.pdf>

GSKSMO Community Partners:

- The mission of the Dole Institute of Politics is to promote political and civic participation as well as civil discourse in a bi-partisan, balanced manner. Click here <https://www.gsksmo.org/en/events-repository/2050/CP-dole-institute.html> to see what programs they are currently holding
- The Kansas State Capitol, known also as the Kansas Statehouse, is the building housing the executive and legislative branches of government for the U.S. state of Kansas. Click here to schedule a tour! <https://www.gsksmo.org/en/events-repository/2050/CP-ks-state-capitol.html>
- Through virtual programming with Ten Thousand Villages, girls will explore what it means to #LiveLifeFair through an age-appropriate, interactive scavenger hunt of fair trade products and a closer look at the lives of the artisans and farmers who create them. Learn more and register at <https://www.gsksmo.org/en/events-repository/2050/CP-tenThousandVillages.html>

Other ideas:

- Explore #VoteKC, <https://www.votekc.com/> a diverse group of organizations - local government, civic, and non-profit included - that believes the cornerstone of democracy is the right to vote and an integrated approach to voter engagement is the best way to maximize the voice of voters.
- Future Gold Award Girl Scout Ella L'Heureaux's project is focused on getting others, especially those who can vote for the first time to get registered. Ella's video is super powerful and educational on what it means to use your voice to vote. Check this out and let's help Ella Promote the Vote with your share - <https://youtu.be/rUU2yboHhcg>
- Gold Award Girl Scout and Miss Teen USA, Sophia Dominguez-Heithoff main platforms as Miss Teen USA included helping people with developmental disabilities and working to empower young girls. In order to do so, she worked with Best Buddies International and Girl Scouts. Girl Scout programs like Girl Scouts Virtual are funded in part by Daisy's Circle. Juliette Gordon Low, known to her friends and family as Daisy, committed her time and personal funds to the founding of the Girl Scout Movement. Named for our founder, Daisy's Circle is our council's monthly giving program.
