

Day Camp Volunteer Structure

The following positions are part of the core volunteer-led day camp structure. The day camp director is appointed by council staff and together they appoint the core volunteers who deliver the service unit day camp experience.

The service unit manager and day camp director are volunteer peers, each leading their own team of volunteers. There may be overlap between the volunteers who serve on the service unit and the day camp teams.

